

PRIVACY NOTICE

IPAVA STATE BANK

- (1) We do not share customer information with other companies for the purpose of allowing them to market their products and services to our customers.
- (2) In the course of doing business with our customer, we collect certain “nonpublic personal information” about our customers in order to provide them with products and services. We collect nonpublic information about them from the following sources:
 - Information we receive from you on applications or other forms
 - Information about your transactions with us, our affiliates, or others
 - Information we receive from a consumer reporting agency
- (3) We have developed security measures to protect customer privacy. We restrict access to nonpublic personal information about you to those employees who need to know that information to provide products or services to you. We maintain physical, electronic and procedural safeguards that comply with federal standards to guard your nonpublic personal information.
- (4) We share customer information with service providers who assist us in servicing customer accounts and preparing and delivering services and products to our customers. Examples of such service providers include check printers, computer services, and credit reporting agencies.
- (5) We do not disclose any nonpublic personal information about our customers to any other third parties, except as permitted or required by law.
- (6) We obtain only limited medical information required to initiate a customer’s request for insurance products or services. In those instances, we will forward that information to the insurance company only to facilitate obtaining the insurance product for which you apply. We will not otherwise disclose such information to anyone unless authorized by the customer or required by law, and we will not use this information for any other purpose.
- (7) If you decide to close your account or your account becomes inactive, we will continue to adhere to the Bank’s then current privacy policies and practices.
